

10 New Las Vegas Venues for Meetings and Events

By Beth Kormanik Posted February 11, 2014, 7:00 AM EST

Here's a look at the best new Las Vegas restaurants, hotels, party rooms, corporate event venues, conference centers, and private rooms to open this winter. These new and renovated Las Vegas venues can accommodate groups large or small for private and corporate events, meetings, business dinners, cocktail parties, conferences, weddings, and more.

2. Crush

Crush, a restaurant from the Morton Group, opened in December at MGM Grand. The 7,000-square-foot restaurant is divided into two rooms, a garden-like atrium that seats 130 and the 100-person main dining room, which has a separate private dining space for 40 guests. Each dining room has its own bar. The shared-plates menu includes dishes such as shrimp risotto, roasted cauliflower, and wood-fired pizzas.
